SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1894.

Lackawanna Election.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad was held Tuesday. There were 1,900 stockholders, holding over 400,000 shares out of the total capital of 526,000 shares, represented in the vote cast for the regular ticket, which was as follows: President Samuel Slone; Secretary, Fred F. Chambers; Treasurer, Frederick H. Gibbons; Board of Managers, John I. Blair, George Bliss, Percy R. Pyne, Eugene Higgins, William W. Astor, William Rockefeller, Henry A. C. Taylor, J. Rogers Maxwell, George F. Baker, James Stillman, Alexander T. Van Nest, Frank Work, Hamilton McK. Twombly and Harris C. Fahnestock. Messrs. Work, Twombly and Fahnestock are new managers, succeeding A. H. McClintock, W. H. Appleton and R. F. Ballantine. An analysis of the vote showed 80,000 shares held in the Vanderbilt interest, including 40,000 shares in the name of W. K. Vanderbilt, 5,000 shares held by H. McK. Twombly and 35,000 shares held by Frank Work. The Jersey Central interest holds about 50,000 shares, and the remainder represented the old Lackawanna management and individual stockholders. Of the new directors Messrs. Twombly and Work represent Mr. Vanderbilt, and Mr. Fahnestock is an additional. The independent holdings of Lackawanna are so large that no one interest could secure control in its own right.

Another Pleasant Evening.

On Friday Evening, March 24, there will be a delightful entertainment in the Glen Ridge Church for the benefit of the new church building. An illustrated lecture, read by Mr. Adams of Philadelphia, who will take for his subject "Bay of Naples."

Mr. Adams is a charming speaker; he has travelled extensively, and knows the pleasure of getting away from the better known places, and exploring out-of-the-way bits for himself. To his audience he gives the result of these personal experiences, illustrated by pictures which he himself has taken. He has been received with great cordiality wherever he has lectured and the Philadelphia papers give him warm praise. The lecture chosen for Glen Ridge is perhaps the best of all, combining instruction with amusement, and those who do not hear it will miss a rare treat.

The tickets are very reasonable—only fifty cents, far below the prices which Mr. Adams' lectures usually command, and every one is expected to appreciate this opportunity. We have had a great many entertainments in town this winter, it is true, given by the different churches, and as a town we have endeavored to support each others efforts. The Glen Ridge Church now claims the privilege of offering one of the most attractive entertainments of the winter, and counts on a liberal patronage.

Cinder Walk.

Committeeman A. J. Lockwood chairman of the Sidewalk Committee is overwhelmed with applications requesting that sidewalks in different parts of town be improved with a covering of cinders. All applications contemplate that the whole cost of improvement shall be defrayed from the sidewalk district grading fund in which the sidewalk is located.

Two obstacles prevent Mr. Lockwood from complying with the wishes of the petitioners. These are a lack of cinders and a lack of money. The sidewalk district which comprises Glen Ridge and Watsessing has sent in several petitions and it is this particular district that has no funds available for the purpose. Mr. Lockwood is always anxious to extend every accommodation to the public that is within his power. If the residents of Washington and Linden Avenues want cinder sidewalk they will have to see to it that an appropriation is voted in that sidewalk district this spring.

Practice Drills.

The Bloomfield Cadet Corps are practicing for a competition drill with the Orange Cadet Corps and for good and sufficient reasons are desirous that visitors will not ask to be admitted to these practice drills.

Positive economy, peculiar merit and wonderful medicinal power are all combined in Hood's Sarsaparilla. Try it. Hood's cures. —Advt.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

A Flag of Truce.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE CITIZEN:

SIR: With your kind permission I should like to have space in your columns to address a few words to the Democrats in the Third Ward in this town, and say to them that it is time they lay aside their personal grievances and devote their energies to the welfare and success of the Democratic party. There is always a fighting chance for success for the Democrats in the Third Ward.

It is currently reported that ill health will compel the retirement of Mr. Lockwood from local politics. This is a matter of regret. Mr. Lockwood is held in high esteem and regarded by all as a very conscientious man, and his continuance in public office would be of great benefit to the Third Ward. With the enforced retirement of Mr. Lockwood it behooves the Democrats to put forward a man who will command the confidence of the voters and insure a diligent and careful guardianship of the interests of the Third Ward. The party has such a man in the person of Edwin A. Rayner. But for private quarrels among the Democrats Mr. Rayner would probably still hold the office of Committeeman. If the Democrats care at all for the success of their party they can show it by putting forward a man like Mr. Rayner. He can combine elements of political strength that no other Democrat in the ward can command. Democrats, get together and endeavor to banish discord and promote harmony.

DEMOCRAT.

He's a Protectionist.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE CITIZEN:

SIR: Is candidate Max Koehler a protectionist, free-trader, or tariff-reformer.

TARIFF.

Considered from a national point of view it is not generally known just where Mr. Koehler stands on this question. The question is immaterial to the issues of a local campaign. There is an element of protection, however, that does enter into township politics, and Mr. Koehler has come out square on it. He is pronounced in favor of protection to the laboring men who are resident taxpayers of this town. He says that no one but a resident of the town is entitled to a contract for public works in the town, and the contractor should be put under bonds to employ none but residents of the town on the work.

Some Moral Questions.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE CITIZEN:

SIR: As a prohibition worker would like to ask if Max Koehler, who is a candidate for political honors, is a temperance man, and if not, does he favor the opening of saloons on Sunday?

RANGE NO. 1.

Mr. Koehler is undoubtedly a temperance man in the literal sense of the word. He probably does not deem it prudent or necessary to express an opinion in the matter of Sunday beer selling. Such questions are not paramount in a local campaign such as is approaching in this town. Mr. Koehler undoubtedly regards them as proper subjects for Sunday afternoon discussion in the Truck House, but not deserving a place in local politics.

The Irish Claim Him.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE CITIZEN:

SIR: Will you please inform me as to what nationality Max Koehler belongs. His name would lead many to imagine him a German, although in the County Kerry the name of Koehler is very well known. Perhaps he came from that county.

P. O'Riordan.

It is rather singular that a man's genealogy should be called into question because he happens to be a candidate for office. It is a fitting tribute to Mr. Koehler's growing greatness that the Irish have designs upon him. The sons of Ireland have a weakness for claiming all great men.

Is He an American?

TO THE EDITOR OF THE CITIZEN:

SIR:—Is Max Koehler a member of the A. P. A.? Let us have his views on the subject.

WALNUT STREET.

Know-nothingism in every form is entirely repugnant to Mr. Koehler, and that is, perhaps, especially the case when it is directed against American citizens of foreign origin. Americans give to men of all races equal and exact justice. That has been our boast as a nation ever since the day when the Puritans of Massachusetts and the Catholics of Maryland sat in the same hall and signed the same Declaration of Independence.—ED.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism his Stomach was disordered, his Liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at Geo. M. Wood's Drug Store.—Advt.

Who Owns the Machine.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE CITIZEN:

SIR: Did the Township Committee or the members of Essex Hook and Ladder Company purchase the fire-truck? A member of Essex says that the men who afterward composed the Truck Company originally solicited the money with which the truck was purchased, and the money was given with the understanding that the machine was to be the property of a hook and ladder company. He says the hose companies were supplied with apparatus bought by the Township Committee. Essex, he says, is the only purely volunteer fire association in the town, and originated in a citizens' movement, independent of the Township Committee.

A Great Outrage Indeed.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE CITIZEN:

SIR: There has been a great outrage committed in this town. A large boot-black who was sent away from the Montclair station for disorderly conduct is now in the Bloomfield station, and has been driving away, with the permission of the baggage-master, the small boot-blacks, who have been in the habit of shinning boots in that building. I had occasion on Thursday to see one of the little fellows kicked off of the platform for no other cause than asking to shine a gentleman's boots. Should this outrage be permitted to go on? With the police station only three or four hundred feet away I should think the police would be able to stop this outrage.

AN INDIGNANT CITIZEN.

Bowling Scores.

A match game was bowled at the Olympic on the morning of Washington's Birthday between the Century's of Montclair and the Olympic's of this town. The Olympic's won by the following scores: Olympic's: Cooper, 151, 140, 152; Barnes, 163, 138, 181; Vought, 174, 154, 139; Thomas, 142, 133, 160; Decker, 140, 120, 204. Totals: 772, 685, 836. Century's: Berrie, 121, 144, 145; Sandford, 144, 144, 110; Dodd, 166, 104, 186; Lippencot, 126, 142, 160; English, 142, 151, 147. Totals: 699, 685, 748.

The high scores during the week for prize ball are as follows: W. P. Sands, 211, 205, 200; H. Decker, 204; W. Vought, 404, 201, 200; H. C. Hood, 196; J. W. Knight, 176; F. M. Cossitt, 182; H. J. Parker, 197; R. T. Cadmus, 191.

Base-ball item.

At a meeting held in the rooms of the Orange Valley Y. M. C. A. a Baseball League was regularly organized. The project has been on foot for some time, and has been received with decided satisfaction by Y. M. C. A. athletes throughout this vicinity. The league is composed of the following associations: Newark, Summit, Montclair, and Orange Valley. Each club will play two games, six at home and six abroad, four with every other club. The Newark club will open the season on Decoration Day on the Roseville grounds, which have been leased for the season, with Montclair. League games will be played at Roseville every other Saturday.

Uncle Sam Was There.

The masquerade party at Miss Minnie Allan's on Bloomfield Avenue on Wednesday night was a brilliant event. Twenty-seven couples in mask enjoyed the dancing. Some very beautiful costumes were worn by the ladies and some very grotesque ones by some of the gentlemen. A conspicuous figure among the maskers was "Uncle Sam," John J. Kohenlien. The affair was very enjoyable throughout.

The Gray Mare.

The comedy of "The Gray Mare" was presented in a delightful manner before a large audience in Central Hall on Tuesday night.

Every part was well sustained the stage setting was very handsome and the music furnished by the beethoven Club was excellent. The Hospitable management netted nearly two hundred dollars from the proceeds of the entertainment.

A Novel Scheme.

Within the past year street lamps have been introduced in the borough of Caldwell, and a novel mode of paying for their maintenance has been adopted. The Caldwell Improvement Association arranged to hold a big spelling bee in the G. A. R. hall, the proceeds were devoted to paying for the street lamps. Mayor Lockwood held the book with the words to be spelled and Alderman Ryerson and Dr. E. E. Bon were captains of the competing teams.

The Dairy Maids' Supper.

The Young People's Society of the First Presbyterian Church is rehearsing a cantata entitled "The Dairy Maids' Supper," which will be produced shortly.

Rubbers Given Away.

In these days, when charitable people are ever exercising their ingenuity in devising plans to relieve the distress of a large portion of humanity, Shoenthal, the shoemaker, of 312 Glenwood Avenue, has come to the front with a plan that is hailed with delight by both rich and poor. Shoenthal's beneficent plan is to give to every purchaser of a two-dollar pair of ladies' shoes a pair of 50 cent rubbers. He has also reduced prices of his whole line of stock to correspond with the times. These extraordinarily low prices will hold good until March 3d.

"Robin Hood" Again.

When The Bostonians went into New York City in December for their present long engagement at the Broadway Theatre, they were under contract to produce two new operas by American composer and librettists. They did this, but during the run of those works, there was such a general demand for that perennial favorite, "Robin Hood" that they finally concluded to yield to the universal wish, and have put that popular opera on again. That it was really wanted is best demonstrated by the fact that they have played to enormous business since the revival.

The Bostonians, which is generally conceded to be the finest light-opera organization in the world, will have appeared in "Robin Hood" more than 1,225 times before the end of their present engagement at the Broadway Theatre, New York, on March 10th. Despite this fact, however, De Koven and Smith's masterwork is to-day the most potent attraction of its kind in existence. The full strength of The Bostonians, magnificent cast is utilized in the revival of "Robin Hood," and any one who happens to be in New York before March 10th, will be well rewarded for the trouble and expense of a visit to the Broadway Theatre.

List of Patents.

Patents issued to Jerseymen, reported by Drake & Co., Newark, N. J.: Air lock for caissons, W. C. Barr, Jersey city; foot power for propelling boats, G. Bold and J. E. Oldham, Plainfield; magic lantern, G. E. Emerson and V. H. Emerson, Newark; jack for heel-nailing machines, S. A. Krawson, Passaic; skirt extender, G. W. Lockwood, Nutley; revolvable ash-sifter, F. Maul, Newark; centrifugal blower, J. O. Poole, Newark; Bridle-bit, R. Sears, Newark; regulator for air compressor, H. C. Sergeant, Westfield; lath-feeder for paper-carriers, W. H. Waldron, New Brunswick; saddle for velocipedes, W. L. Decker, Orange; air pump, J. Dickens, New Brunswick; journal-bearing for axles, J. P. Metzger, Paterson, two patents.

Peddlers' License.

Judge Abbett has decided a peddlers license case. The Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co.'s agent was arrested in Rahway some months ago for peddling without a license, and was adjudged guilty by Justice Frazer. An appeal was taken, the defence claiming that they do not come under the head of peddlers, as they take orders and subsequently deliver the goods. Judge Abbett has decided in the case before him, wherein the ordinance is similar to that of Rahway, that the defence is a good one, and that parties disposing of goods in that way are not subject to pay a license.
